AT a YEARLY MEETING, held in New-York, by adjournments, from the twenty-fourth of the fifth month, to the twenty-seventh of the same, inclusive, 1819.

THE Committee on the proposition from Westbury Quarterly Meeting, relative to a change in the Third Query, proposed an Essay to be substituted for the present Query; it is as follows:—

THIRD QUERY.—"ARE Friends careful to keep themselves, their own, and other Friends' children, under their care, in plainness of speech, behaviour, and apparel; and do they endeavour, by example and precept, to train them up in a religious life and conversation, consistent with our Christian profession? Are the Scriptures of Truth frequently read in their families, and do they extend a due care in these respects towards others under their tuition?"

THE Meeting united with the report: and the Query, as now revised, was directed to the observance of our subordinate Meetings, who were requested to have the alteration made in all their copies of the Book of Discipline, and report thereon next year.

EXTRACTED from the minutes of said Meeting,

SAMUEL PARSONS, Clerk.
